Exhibit Award Winners Announced for 2024 National Money Show®

The American Numismatic Association (ANA) presented 23 competitive exhibit awards at the 2024 Colorado Springs National Money Show®. Winners were announced at the Exhibit Awards Presentation & Reception on Saturday, March 16.

Eddie Swanson received the Steven D'Ippolito Award for Excellence in Numismatic Exhibiting (best of show) for his exhibit, "Presidents of the Progressive Era (1897-1920)." The second place D'Ippolito Award was presented to Michael T. Shutterly for "Heavenly Gold." Third place was also awarded to Shutterly for his exhibit "In the Beginning ... When Man Created Coins."

The Radford Stearns Memorial Award for People's Choice, determined by votes from convention attendees, was presented to Steve Shupe for "Trimes: Three-Cent Silver 1851-1873."

The theme for National Coin Week this year is "A Hobby for a Changing World – 100 Years and Counting." National Coin Week exhibits are intended to be suitable for display in libraries and schools, so there is a $250 limit on the value of the materials in this competition. The National Coin Week Award was presented to Judy Dobbins for "Texas Numismatic Association Show Medals." She will receive a full scholarship to a future ANA Summer Seminar, an award endowed by John Albanese. Second place in this category was awarded to Jeffrey Rosinia for "The Colorado Springs Centennial Medal." Third place was earned by Richard Jozefiak for "Token for an Ice Worm Cocktail in Alaska."
