Registration Open for 52nd Annual Summer Seminar

Register by April 3 for Discounts

Registration is open for those looking to attend the American Numismatic Association's (ANA) annual Summer Seminar. Located in Colorado Springs, Colo., on the Colorado College campus adjacent to the ANA headquarters, Summer Seminar features classes to suit virtually every collector's hobby needs.

This once-a-year opportunity for numismatic learning and camaraderie offers students a varied selection of weeklong courses designed for discovery or continued study. For many students, Summer Seminar is a life-changing event; it has catapulted the careers of several of the nation's most respected collectors, authors and dealers.

The 2020 Summer Seminar course catalog is available online at money.org/summer-seminar, where each seminar is listed and details for mini-seminars, tours and events, and intersession activities can be found.

Students may select from a variety of tuition and lodging options to meet their needs, preferences and budget when registering. Scholarships also are available; applications must be submitted by Feb. 14.

For additional information, call (719) 482-9810 or email seminars@money.org.

The American Numismatic Association is a congressionally chartered, nonprofit educational organization dedicated to encouraging the study and collection of coins and related items. The ANA helps its 25,000 members and the public discover and explore the world of money through its vast array of educational and outreach programs as well as its museum, library, publications, and conventions.
