Intermediate Grading of United States Coins Seminar Offered at Oklahoma City World's Fair of Money

American Numismatic Association Offers Class to Expand Hobby Knowledge

The American Numismatic Association's (ANA) World's Fair of Money® (WorldsFairOfMoney.com) is being hosted at the Oklahoma City Convention Center in Oklahoma City, OK, August 19-23. The show brings coin collectors together from all over the world, featuring hundreds of dealers, displays of rare treasures, educational opportunities, family activities and more.

The ANA is offering a pre-show seminar to help collectors expand their knowledge on grading United States coins.

Intermediate Grading of United States Coins

This two-day mid-level course is intended to sharpen grading skills through hands-on group and individual exercises with instructor feedback on each coin. Students will gain a better understanding of current grading service philosophies and how they evolved in the marketplace. Copper, silver and gold specimens are covered with emphasis on About Uncirculated through Uncirculated examples.

Prerequisite: Successful completion of "Grading United States Coins, Part 1" or permission from the instructors.

Instructors: Bob Mellor, ANA district representative, advanced numismatist, educator, and author; and William Latour, owner of Lowcountry Coins LLC, and SCNA bourse chairman.

Time: August 17-18; 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Location: Omni Oklahoma City Hotel, Bricktown Room, 100 Oklahoma City Blvd., Oklahoma City, OK 73109

Cost: $250 ANA members / $350 non-members

The deadline to register for the seminar is July 7. For more information and to register, visit info.money.org/intermediate-grading. For questions, email seminars@money.org or call (719) 482-9848.
